

Upland Consulting Privacy Policy

Last updated: 8th September 2023

At Upland Consulting, we are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This policy outlines how we collect, use, and safeguard your personal information. By providing us with your information, you consent to the practices described in this policy.

Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following data about you:

- Name
- Email address
- Preferred phone number
- Any additional information you provide voluntarily.

How We Use Your Information

We use your information for the following purposes:

- To communicate with you about our products, services, and events
- To provide you with information that you request from us
- To improve our products and services
- For any other purpose with your consent

Sharing Your Information

We will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes, nor permit it to be so shared. Trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you may sometimes have access to your information. They are bound by this policy also.

Security

We take appropriate measures to ensure your personal information is protected from unauthorized access or disclosure.

We will delete your information if it is of no further relevance to our business, or at any time upon receiving your request.

Your Rights

You have the right to access, correct, or delete your personal information. You may also opt out of receiving marketing communications from us at any time.

Changes to this Policy

We may update this policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. The most current version will always be available online.
